

TEA!

THE CUP THAT CHEERS BUT NOT INEBRIATES

Few merchants and practically no consumers can tell the cup quality of teas by their appearance, therefore it behooves both merchants and consumers alike to be cautious and only buy teas from men that make the upbuilding of their tea trade their object. We buy our teas from an exclusive tea house and feel satisfied from our trade on this beverage that it is the best that we can procure. Royal Blend Teas numbers 1 and 2 at $1 and 85c per pound respectively will make more tea and better tea than any we have ever been able to buy : : : : :

RUSSIA WILL REMAIN

Has No Intention of Leaving Manchuria to Others.

BRITISH SO BELIEVE.

Report Circulated at Paris That Russia Has Withdrawn Her Treaty. Japan Not Satisfied With Russia's Present Action.

London, April 6.—Russia's attitude towards Manchuria as outlined by the official messenger of St. Petersburg is interpreted almost unanimously by the British press as capable of being condensed into a single sentence: "J'y suis j'y reste"—"I am here; remain here," and there is no disposition to believe the matter is thus ended.

The Daily News says: "Russia has a firm friend and ally in the United States. The American government lost no time in publishing the plausible pacific assurance received by Secretary Hay from Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador. The United States has long been anxious to get out of the Chinese imbroglio altogether."

Says Treaty Withdrawn. Paris, April 6.—According to information that has reached Paris from a source regarded as unquestionable authenticity, Russia has withdrawn her proposed Manchurian treaty with China. This step is attributed to the personal instigation of Emperor Nicholas and is accepted as evidence of his determination to avoid at the present juncture any conflict with Japan. Coupled with this news comes the statement that Russia does not deem it expedient to withdraw any of her troops now in Manchuria and intends to maintain statu quo there until such a government can be established at Peking strong and stable enough to inspire Russian confidence for the future.

Japan Determined. Yokohama, April 6.—The Japanese government is maintaining great secrecy regarding its policy, but it is said on good authority that the cabinet at a meeting on Friday resolved to communicate with Russia in firm terms respecting Manchuria. There is extraordinary activity in naval and military circles.

Punishment Agreed Upon. Berlin, April 6.—A dispatch to The Cologne Gazette from Peking, dated on April 4, says the Chinese plenipotentiaries have agreed on the punishments of guilty provincial officials demanded by foreign ministers on account of the murder of 242 persons, missionaries and their wives and children.

Peffer Eclipsed. Wabash, Ind., April 6.—Two men, both residents of Wabash county, met at the county auditor's office here and the combined length of whose whiskers was almost seven feet. They were Jonas Grosanickie of Chester township and Will Ziller of Lagro township. The remarkable beard worn by the men started comment among the clerks, and both consented to have their whiskers measured. Mr. Ziller's beard was 42½ inches long, while that of Mr. Grosanickie was 40 inches, or combined 82½ inches.

Population of Great Britain. London, April 6.—The census of the united kingdom taken last Sunday night will not be tabulated for some time, but the indications are the population of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales will be more than 50,000,000. The percentage of increase is less than in previous decades. The depopulation of rural districts in favor of the cities is most marked. Ireland's population is less than 10 years ago and probably lower than any other time in the Nineteenth century.

An Extradition Causes Trouble. Geneva, Switzerland, April 6.—A serious demonstration against the Russian and Italian consulates and the residence of the Italian consul occurred on Friday evening in connection with the extradition of Jaffei, the alleged accomplice of Gaetano Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert. The mob tore down and shattered the coat of arms at the Russian consulate but were prevented by the police from doing any material damage elsewhere.

Recorders in Place of Mayors. Harrisburg, Pa., April 6.—A. N. Brown and John R. Murphy have been appointed recorders of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City respectively by Gov. Stone. This is in accordance with a recent act of the legislature known as the "Ripper" bill abolishing the office of mayor in second-class cities and giving the governor the power to appoint recorders in their stead. The newly appointed officers will serve until 1902.

Robert Moulton a Wreck. New York, April 6.—Robert Hayder Moulton, the principal in the recent sensational shooting affray at the Pabst hotel, is said to be dying at Bellevue hospital. The hospital authorities say he has become a wreck from the excessive use of morphine and cannot recover.

Tax Reform League Active. Denver, April 6.—The Tax reform league has undertaken to raise a fund of $10,000 to be used in the prosecution of persons accused of frauds in connection with the late city election and in the employment of experts to examine the books of all city and county officers.

CARTER'S PECULATION. Government Will Regain Some of the Money He Appropriated.

Washington, April 6.—Important developments in the Oberlin M. Carter case are likely to occur within a few days. Carter is now serving a sentence of five years imprisonment in the government penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., charged with gigantic swindling operations against the government. Up to the time he was convicted Carter was under the jurisdiction of and was prosecuted by the war department. Since then the civil authorities of the government, acting through the department of justice, have relentlessly traced step by step the money Carter stole and are about ready to recover it and turn it back into the treasury.

The department of justice has discovered that Carter's profits from the shrewd swindling scheme which he worked successfully for so long a time were $722,000. The government detectives who for three years have been on the ex-army officer's trail, have located nearly every cent of this money and as soon as certain unimportant details are completed the legal steps necessary to recover it will be taken by the department of justice.

Attachments will be sworn out by the United States district attorneys in New York City, at Savannah and at other places where Carter invested the money and it is not impossible that as a result of these proceedings the arrest of two or three well known men charged with knowingly taking part in the stealings will follow.

It has been learned that Carter invested the money in gilt edged securities and real estate around New York. All of these securities, as well as the real estate, have been located, and the government will swoop down on them as soon as the attachments are obtained.

Notes from Manila. Manila, April 6.—Aguinaldo is composing his manifesto to the Filipino people and spends hours consulting the dictionary. His manifesto is not yet finished.

Promising gold discoveries are reported from the island of Masbate, close to the southern extremity of Luzon. The collier Brutus has arrived from Guam and reports the Filipino prisoners there in excellent health.

Investigation into the commissary scandal is progressing and the civilians implicated therein are soon to be tried.

More Surrenders. Manila, April 6.—The following surrenders have occurred:

Insurgent General Arejola with 30 officers and 800 men, at the town of Nueva Caceres, southern Luzon. The remainder of the command of Major Pablo Lecson, consisting of 19 officers, 173 men and 136 rifles at the town of San Miguel de Mayumo, central Luzon and 16 officers in Bulacan province and at other points.

Wholesale grocer dealers in Manila report doubled sales of groceries since investigation into alleged commissary scandals commenced.

To Entertain the President.

New Orleans, April 5.—An elaborate demonstration is being arranged here for President McKinley. The city will be decorated appropriately in honor of the visit of the chief magistrate. According to the present schedule the presidential party will reach New Orleans at 4:30 p. m. on May 1. That evening a banquet will be given in the president's honor. At the banquet the president will probably make a brief speech. On the following morning there will be a carriage ride through the city which will include a stop at Cabildo, the old government building, during the Spanish and French regimes. After luncheon the party will be given a sail along the river front. The departure from New Orleans will be made at 6 p. m. on May 2.

Good roads will bring wagon loads of prosperity to Bryan.

Attend the revival. Let everybody go and help to make it a success.

You see the bonnet now and think it a beauty; but wait till you see the bill.

The Chinese are suffering the consequences of insisting upon attending to their own business.

There can be no dodging the issue: To maintain her prestige as a cotton market, Bryan must have a cotton mill.

Railroad magnates are said to be considering a scheme to consolidate all the principal lines in the United States under one system.

The Boers seem to have scored one point. British agents in the United States have received orders to buy no more horses and mules.

The press dispatches indicate that General Cassius M. Clay is still holding the fort in old Kentucky, ready to fight at the drop of a hat.

The difference between the successful and the unsuccessful man is, one spends less than his income and the other don't. The amount of the income has little to do with it.—Farm and Ranch.

The Bonham Favorite says: "The very air is becoming vibratory with enterprise. The fires have been kindled in the furnace of the new cotton mill, and the smoke curling from its ambitious stack will invite to this locality other mills and other industries." Cotton mills are springing up all over Texas. When will Bryan take this important question up and solve it?

DISCUSSION SUPPRESSED.

General Wood Closes the Office for an Insulting Cartoon.

Havana, April 6.—The Discusion has been suppressed by order of Governor General Wood and its office closed and sealed. This action is due to the publication in The Discusion Friday of an illustration having for a title "The Cuban Calvary," representing the Cuban public personified in a Cuban soldier being crucified between two thieves, General Wood being represented as one thief and President McKinley as the other, both being labelled with their names. Senator Platt was represented as a Roman soldier giving vinegar and gall in the form of the Platt amendment while public opinion, as Mary Magdalene, was weeping at the foot of the cross. Below was the following inscription: "Will destiny reserve for us a glorious resurrection?"

The picture caused much unfavorable comment Friday from a standpoint of decency. The editor of the paper, Senor Coronado, was arrested, but released on bail. It is probable no other action will be taken against The Discusion than suppressing its publication for several days.

Senor Capote, president of the Cuban constitutional convention, visited Gen. Wood and told him the convention individually and as a body regretted the publication of this caricature. Senor Capote said the picture misrepresented the feelings of the Cubans who hold General Wood and President McKinley in the greatest respect and were deeply grateful to them.

On his solicitation General Woods decided to allow the paper to continue publication, but the judge of the correctional court will prefer charges, the character of which will be determined later, against Editor Coronado.

STOP BUYING HORSES.

English Agents Ordered to Purchase No More, but Hurry Shipments.

New York, April 6.—A special to The World from New Orleans says the war office in London has cabled its agents in this country to buy no more mules and horses for the South African war, but to hurry all stock now under contract to New Orleans where it will be put aboard ships as speedily as possible.

Colonel DeBurgh, the chief of the British army in the United States, is now in the west but is expected here in a few days. May 1, has been set as the time for closing up the business of shipping the stock from the United States. It is expected that the last animal will be aboard ship and off to sea by that date. It is believed here the injunction suit begun by General Pearson of the Boer army and Evan Ness of New York in the district court here, had something to do with the instructions to stop buying stock though the British representatives deny it.

Injunction Not Heeded.

New Orleans, April 6.—The Boer injunction proceedings to stop the shipment of mules through New Orleans to the British army in South Africa was not taken up in the United States circuit court today. A supplemental petition was filed by the Boer people and lawyers representing the other side asked for time to consider it. Without objection the case went over until next Tuesday.

Girl Disguised as a Tramp.

LaPorte, Ind., April 6.—A mystery was solved here by the finding of Cora Theisen, a pretty 14-year-old girl, who disappeared from her home at Chicago last June. Miss Theisen came here under the name of Dora Ingall. She wore tattered garments, and by telling a plausible story that she was an orphan was practically adopted by Mrs. J. W. Hewitt of this city. The young girl was handsomely clothed, and was sent to the public schools, where she proved an apt student, and at once became a pronounced social favorite. Several months ago she wrote to an aunt in Germany soliciting money to enable her to visit her. The letter was immediately sent the Chicago parents and resulted in the disclosure of the girl's identity.

THE CLAY EPISODE.

Suit Withdrawn and No Further Proceedings Will Follow.

Richmond, Ky., April 6.—Hostilities at Whitehall, between General Cassius M. Clay, who resisted officers Friday, have ceased. The parties who caused the writ of possession to be issued against the general have withdrawn the suit. Sheriff Colyer, who had a narrow escape during the fight believes some of the shots he last fired struck General Clay. There is no way to get reports from the barricaded Whitehall as danger is awaiting any one who may at this time go there to make inquiries.

Deputies have arrested a man named Bowlin, one of General Clay's armed guards, handcuffed him and took a gun from him.

Officers could have killed General Clay but would not do so.

CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

His Daughter Makes an Effort to Get Her Furniture from Whitehall.

Lexington, April 6.—The conflict at Whitehall, General Cassius M. Clay's home, between himself and his body guard and officers, was directly connected with the domestic woes of General Clay which have darkened the closing years of his life. The principals in the battle were General Clay and two of his body guard, Bud Literell and Jim Bollin on one side and Sheriff Colyer, Deputy Terrill and Frank Mason of Madison county on the other. The writ which the sheriff sought to serve was one ordering the delivery of some furniture belonging to the general's daughter.

The officers approached the house from the north, passing through the apple orchard. The general's Russian bull dogs set up a barking and the officers stopped at the yard. The general's bodyguard promptly came to the door and the sheriff announced that he desired a personal interview with the master of Whitehall. General Clay in a few minutes came to the door, revolver in hand.

"General Clay," said the sheriff, "we are here on a peaceful mission."

"You are on my property without leave and I will shoot you," replied the old man, who, almost blind, strained his eyes as if trying to make out the location of the enemy.

"Don't shoot, general we are friends," shouted Sheriff Colyer.

"Spies," he retorted, and handing his pistol to one of his men, he took instead a repeating shotgun and cocked it. Sheriff Colyer sought shelter behind a large oak tree nearby and his deputies also hid themselves. All pulled their weapons. General Clay shrieked, "The vendetta! the vendetta!" and began firing in the direction from which he heard the voices. The sheriff fired in return after the general had emptied the weapon and his deputies also fired, they say, not at the old man, but hoping to scare him into seeking shelter. Colyer was shooting wild also, not desiring to kill the old general, who, although doing his best to kill them, believed he was firing upon an enemy.

After emptying his shotgun, General Clay tried his revolver, which would not fire. He then took from the hands of the other guard a rifle and discharged it in the direction of the frightened sheriff and deputies. Exhausting his ammunition, General Clay sought retreat. He went into his room, putting up the iron bars, and stationed himself at the side of the door for further attack.

After General Clay had retreated into his den Sheriff Colyer and his men left the yard. They found a negro boy and sent him to the house to try and get General Clay to come out unarmed and meet them, but in this they were not successful and they returned without serving the process.

Some months ago General Clay, who had been left alone after his child wife, Dora Richardson, ran away and left him, sent for Mary B. Clay, a daughter, to come and live with him. For some weeks they got along nicely and the veteran appeared to be satisfied. Then he instructed his daughter to go to his wife and secure a release from her of all property which she occupies. She went to get the property from Dora, the child wife, who is now the wife of Riley Brock, and resides at Pinckard, in Woodford county, on the property given her by the general. His daughter went away according to orders and returned a day or so later and was met at the door by the old man. His eyes were fiery. In his trembling hand he held a revolver grasped tightly. He demanded to know the result of the visit.

"It's all right," said the frightened daughter.

"All right, is it?" retorted the infuriated man. "You lie. I know you are deceiving me." Levelling his revolver at his daughter's head, he added, "Leave my house and never come here again." Returning to his room the old man moaned: "She is trying to deceive me, I could tell it by her face."

The daughter needed her furniture and secured a writ of delivery for her furniture and placed the paper in the hands of Sheriff Colyer, hence the trouble.

The Spider's Thread.

The body of every spider contains four little masses pierced with a multitude of holes, imperceptible to the naked eye, each hole permitting the passage of a single thread. All the threads, to the amount of 1,000 to each mass, join together when they come out and make the single thread with which the spider spins its web, so that what we call a spider's thread consists of more than 4,000 threads united.

Population of Texarkana.

Texarkana, Tex., April 6.—The late Federal census showed the population of the Arkansas side of Texarkana to be 4105. A vigorous kick was at once registered by the business men and citizens in general, who set about having another census taken. This enumeration just completed, shows a population of 6000 on that side of the town. The Texas side is known to have some 3000 more than the Arkansas town, and on this basis it is now asserted that the city, taking both sides of the state line, has a total of about 15,000 souls.

San Angelo, Tex. March 25.—Mr. J. W. Smith, a former resident of Brazos county, died March 25th at his home in San Angelo.

Mr. Smith was 67 years old. He moved from Tate county Mississippi to Brazos county in 1875, where he made his home until 1890 when he moved to Milan county and lived until 1900. He then moved to San Angelo on November 25th, 1900.

Mr. Smith leaves a wife, eight children and a brother to wit: L. W., J. N., Will and Miss Ella Smith; Mrs. D. C. Connor, Mrs. J. M. Slaughter, Mrs. W. F. Farmer, Mrs. W. L. Sikes, and Mr. Robert Smith.

Mr. Smith was a devoted husband and father. He had been a member of the Methodist church thirty-seven years. He was a man much loved by his neighbors and one who will be sadly missed.

The interment was at San Angelo cemetery Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Barr conducting the service.

Mr. Editor, I will tell you about Mr. H. Bullock of your town. We took a nice walk last Sunday evening but had to dodge about very much on account of the yellow flags. Mr. Bullock was prospecting and I think favorably impressed with San Angelo.

Webb George of Payne Prairie and Buster Newman of Bryan are here looking for work. They are highly pleased with the town.

Cold and Dry at Seymour.

Seymour, Tex. March 31.—As the sleet is pattering against the window pane and the north wind is chanting the requiem of the dying day of March 1901, I will write to our old home paper, the dear old Eagle.

Cold, cold, very cold is the way I put it and the last day in March, which to one raised in Brazos county is something unusual, but we hope for sunshine and warm showers in April.

Very dry here. Land hunters all gone.

With love to the cousins and success to the Eagle I say good bye.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Almanac. For sale by Wilson-Jenkins Drug Co.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE

One of the Railroad Bills Killed in the Senate—Funston Resolution.

Austin, April 3.—The 115-mile railroad lease bill was killed yesterday in the senate. This is the bill under which the Frisco, Rock Island and the Choctaw expected to build some lines in Texas. What effect its defeat may have on these projects is not now known. This is also the bill which led to the resignation of Representative Dillard. He retired from the legislature because he failed to defeat the bill in the house, but it has been killed, notwithstanding his absence.

Mr. Miller secured the final passage a bill punishing persons who steal gas or electricity by tapping pipes or wires.

The senate passed to third reading the house bill prohibiting railroad and railway companies or corporations in this state from permitting Johnson grass or Russian thistle from going to seed upon their right of way.

Mr. Harris of Boxer, secured the engrossment and final passage of his bill providing for manual training in the public schools.

Mr. Hanger finally passed the house bill granting Fort Worth a new charter.

Mr. McGee called up the House bill regulating quarantine by cities, towns and counties.

An amendment by Mr. McGee pending to require counties to pay cost of quarantine was adopted.

Mr. Turney offered an amendment providing that in counties bordering on the Republic of Mexico the state shall pay one-half the cost of quarantine and the county the other half.

Mr. Potter offered an amendment to the amendment, adding "Indian Territory" after "Mexico." It was adopted and the original amendment was adopted. The bill was passed finally.

Mr. McFall's concurrent resolution fixing the date of the sine die adjournment on May 6, and repealing the resolution already adopted, which fixes the date on April 9, was tabled.

A resolution by Mr. Phillips extending sympathy to Aguinaldo and condemning "the methods of deception and fraud" by which he was captured by General Funston, who is characterized as the "Kansas swashbuckler," was read.

A substitute by Mr. Parish praising Funston was read.

The latter was ruled out of order. The original was referred to the committee on Federal relations on a division.

The house put in most of the day in consideration of the Galveston relief bill, under which it was proposed to donate the taxes paid by the citizens of that place to them for the purpose of raising the grade of the city. When the house adjourned the bill had been amended on motion of Mr. Hendricks of Rusk, so as to limit relief of two years' taxes. This practically kills the bill as the people of Galveston cannot float the bonds on the taxes of two years.

FUNSTON RESOLUTION.

It Goes Over in the House After Considerable Wrangle.

Austin, April 3.—The house devoted much time this morning to consideration of the resolution providing for a committee of 31, representing the senatorial districts, to redistrict the congressional districts of state. No final action was taken.

The house devoted half an hour to wrangling over the resolutions about Aguinaldo and General Funston.

A resolution introduced to have Aguinaldo exhibited in America as a freak was ruled out of order.

The resolution introduced complimenting General Funston came up for discussion and provoked marked opposition from Democrats of the house who bitterly opposed the proposition of a Democratic legislature endorsing a Republican administration or the achievements of the representative of a standing army. The debate was at fever heat when the time set apart for resolutions expired and the resolution went over.

The senate passed the final house bill prohibiting railroads from letting Johnson grass grow on right of ways.

LARGEST SHIP LAUNCHED.

The Celtic Has Nine Decks and Can Accommodate 2859 Passengers.

Belfast, April 5.—The new White Star Line steamer Celtic, the largest vessel ever built, was successfully launched here yesterday morning. The Celtic's dimensions are as follows: Length 680.9 feet; beam 75 feet; depth 44.1 feet, gross tonnage 20,880, net tonnage 13,650. The Celtic will have a displacement of 33,000 tons and is not intended for speed. She is designed as an emigrant carrier. The Celtic has 9 decks and a capacity for 2859 passengers. She will carry a crew of 335 men and her tonnage is 3600 more than that of the Oceanic and nearly double that of Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse and her displacement is 12,500 greater than that of the latter vessel, while her displacement and tonnage are 10,300 over that of the Great Eastern.

Washington, April 5.—Gov. Hann, Dr. H. C. Taylor and State Senator Alec of Delaware, had an extended conference with the president Thursday. Delaware's political matters were discussed. Governor Hann said he would not at present call an extra session of the legislature to attempt to elect two United States senators.

Brakeman Burned to Death.

Burlington, Kas., April 5.—A brakeman was burned to death on the Missouri Pacific between Leroy and Aliceville, east of here in a collision between a work train and a freight.

ROBBERS IN OHIO.

Safe in a Savings Bank Blown, but Bulk of the Money Not Reached.

Chardon, O., April 4.—A gang of half a dozen robbers blew open the safe of the Citizens' Savings bank here early this morning and after a desperate fight with Night Watchman Pomoroy and a citizen, succeeded in making their escape. It is believed they secured less than $200.

The night watchman discovered the men at work in the bank. He was seized and bound and gagged, but not until he had shot one of the burglars. Dr. Hadson, who lives near the bank was aroused by the noise and went to the scene. He was also seized and tied hand and feet.

The robbers succeeded in gaining an entrance to one compartment of the big safe. In another part was nearly $50,000.

Pomoroy, the night watchman, after the shooting of one of the burglars, was badly clubbed over the head.

The robbers left town on a handcar. Two men were arrested at Willoughby upon the charge of being members of the gang.

CHINA REFUSES.

Will Not Sign Russian Demands as to Manchurian Concessions.

Pekin, April 4.—The Chinese government has formally notified Russia that China, owing to the attitude of the powers, is not able to sign the Manchurian convention.

"It is China's desire," says the formal notification, "to keep on friendly terms with all nations. At present she is going through a period which is the most perilous in the empire's history, and it is necessary that she should have the friendship of all."

"However much she might be willing to grant any special privilege to one power, when others object, it is impossible, that, for the sake of making one nation friendly, she should alienate the sympathies of all others."

Li Hung Chang says this letter settles the matter definitely and that Russia was informally notified to the same effect March 29.

Prince Ching asserts that every Chinaman except Li Hung Chang was against signing the convention.

MURDERED IN CHINA.

Additional Names of Missionaries Hitherto Unaccounted for.

Vancouver, April 4.—According to advices brought by the steamer Empress of Japan, raids are reported from the neighborhood of Pao Ting and Chinese authorities have no power to prevent them. Marshal von Waldersee is said to have issued orders to the foreign garrison in Pao Ting to assume the offensive.

On March 8 a collision took place near Pao Ting between German troops and 400 Chinese regulars. Of the latter 52 were killed.

The North China Daily News announces the massacre of the following missionaries hitherto unaccounted for:

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Norsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen and three children.

Rev. A. E. Palm.

Miss E. Ericson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hellberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingmark and two children.

Miss A. Gustafson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundberg and two children.

Miss Clara Hall.

The newspaper does not give the date on which the massacre occurred.

New York, April 5.—In response to the invitation from the Texas legislature and Governor Sayers to the chamber of commerce and Merchants' association of this city, to send committees to confer with business men as to the best means of developing the resources of Texas, President King of the Merchants association has named a committee which will leave here April 20. The committee, which consists of 30 members, will be received in New Orleans by a reception committee of officials of Texas who will conduct them through the state. The party will be taken to the oil fields near Beaumont, to Galveston, Sugarland, San Antonio, Austin, New Braunfels, San Marcos, Llano, Granite Mountain, Marble Falls, Taylor, Temple, Waco, Fort Worth, Dallas and a number of other north Texas places, the trip lasting until May 5.

HEYWOODS MONDAY NIGHT.

The Heywood's Celebrities gave a fine musical entertainment at the opera house last night—one of the best, in fact, ever heard in Bryan. The audience was pleased beyond measure and vigorously encored every number. Miss Katherine Shaw sang with great sweetness and expression and Mr. Cosby possesses a rich well modulated baritone. As for the Hancock boys, their violin playing is simply marvelous, a revelation and a delight to those who heard it.

A pleasing comedy sketch, "Man Proposes," rounded out the performance in good shape, making a rare evening's entertainment.

Having an open date Monday night the Heywoods have agreed to play here again upon that occasion reduce the price to 25 cents all over the house, children 15 cents.

THE RICE ESTATE.

Notice of Appeal Filed from an Order Given by the Surrogate.

New York, April 6.—Surrogate Fitzgerald some days ago issued an order directing Cantwell & Moore, attorneys for Albert T. Patrick, to file with the surrogate the alleged assignment dated Feb. 17, 1900, by Rice to Patrick of the former's estate; also the assignment of Sept. 21, 1900, of the stock on deposit with Wall street brokers and letters of instructions which Patrick is said to have received from Mr. Rice. Friday Cantwell & Moore filed a notice of appeal. The hearing on this application may not be had for two or three months. B. B. Rice, a nephew, and Captain Baker, representing other heirs, offered a motion Friday to instruct John P. O'Brien, temporary administrator of the Rice estate, to advance $250,000 for the purpose of rebuilding the oil plant in Houston, Tex., destroyed by fire about two weeks before Mr. Rice's death. Patrick filed objections through Cantwell & Moore, stating that the proposition is hazardous and speculative, and if granted, the estate would sustain a serious and irreparable loss.

COLLEGE SCANDAL.

Young Men Indicted and College Girls Named in the Indictments.

Bowling Green, Ky., April 6.—Five young men belonging to some of the best and wealthiest families of Bowling Green and themselves members of the city's most exclusive social circles, have been indicted by the grand jury for participating in the escapade at Potter's college in which several young women, attending the college were also involved. It is charged that they placed a ladder to a window of the college and enticed the girls from the college, and that when Prof. Cabell, president of the college, fired upon the men they returned the fire without wounding him. The young women are named in the indictments. The young men allege that they intended to take the girl's to a duck supper.

AN INSANE MOTHER.

Holds Her Infant in Fire Until Its Head Was Burned Away.

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 6.—Held in a fire by its mother until its head was literally burned away and its body a mass of charred flesh, the 1-year-old child of Mrs. Morris met an awful death. No other cause than insanity can be assigned for the mother's awful deed.

Mrs. Morris lived with her family and children in Stanton. Seemingly she was contented until a few days ago when she began to evince a dislike for her youngest born. The woman, after the discovery of her crime, was sullen and would give no reason for what she had done, other than that she was weary of the care of her child and thought it would be better dead.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Resolution Adopted for Election of Senators by the People.

MANY BILLS PASSED.

The House Defeats the Funston Resolution and Spends Much Time in an Effort to Change the Rules of That Body.

Austin, April 6.—The house concurrent resolution petitioning congress to submit a constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States senators by vote of the people was passed by the senate yesterday.

Mr. Wilson had the house amendments concurred in to his bill requiring mandates to be taken out of the higher courts within 12 months after final judgment.

Mr. Beaty had engrossed his bill increasing from seven to 25 years the maximum penalty in assault to murder cases.

The senate refused to concur in the house amendments to the bill providing for the incorporation of mutual fire insurance companies, and a free conference committee was requested.

Mr. Staples secured the consideration of his bill creating the office of state mine, factory and boiler inspector.

There was a long discussion over the bill, the enacting clause finally stricken out by a vote of 17 to 9, killing the bill.

Mr. Turney called up the committee substitute for the house general land bill. The substitute provides for the sale of all unsurveyed public land; protection of the existing leases in the counties to be taken out of the absolute lease district and the removal of the lease line west, so as not to include the counties of Kent, Garza, Lynn, Scurry, Borden, Dawson, Mitchell, Martin, Howard, Coke, Sterling, Glasscock, Tom Green, Irion, Schleicher, Menard, Mason and Uvalde.

Several amendments were voted down and the bill was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Davidson of Galveston called up his bill to authorize storm-stricken towns, cities and counties to compromise and refund their outstanding bonds and floating indebtedness. It passed finally under a suspension of the rules. It is known as the Galveston bill.

Mr. Miller called up the house bill amending the Dallas city charter with committee amendments, which were adopted. These amendments knocked out all sections affecting the commission, and left the bill practically as it was in the original senate bill.

On motion of Mr. Davidson of Galveston the senate refused to concur in the house amendments to his Galveston grade-raising bill and a conference committee appointed.

Several bills perfecting the road system of certain counties were passed. The house voted down the Funston resolution, which caused considerable debate the past few days.

The house spent most of the forenoon in an effort to change the rules so as to take up senate bill that had been passed.

The house concurred in the senate amendments to the Austin charter bill, finally passing it with the emergency clause.

The senate bill which provides that a saloon man who has sold liquor to an habitual drunkard in good faith, may enter the fact of his ignorance that he was selling to an habitual drunkard as a defense in any suit on his bond, provoked considerable discussion. Mr. Aldrich attempted unsuccessfully to kill the bill. The bill was engrossed—aye 74, noes 35.

The Galveston grade-raising bill was laid before the house and finally passed. The joint resolution by Mr. Schluter, submitting an amendment to the constitution permitting municipalities to exempt cotton mills from taxation, was finally passed.

The bill permitting branch lines on railroads to be extended from branch lines, was passed.

The bill requiring railroads to furnish suitably equipped cars for the shipment of lumber, was passed.

The bill taxing timber on leased public land, was passed.

The bill requiring ginners to keep a record of cotton handled by them, was passed.

The bill making eight hours a working day in public work, was passed.

Double-Header Bill Killed.

Austin, April 6.—The house this morning by a vote of 55 to 44 refused to make the double-header bill special order. This practically means the defeat of the bill.

The house refused to concur in the senate's amendments to Dallas charter and asked for a free conference committee, the contention being over the police commission feature.

The house adopted the free conference committee report on the Galveston commission bill.

Governor Sayer vetoed the house bill extending the scholastic age and the house bill providing for the drainage of lands by natural channels.

Senate spent most of the morning discussing a resolution as to whether they would consider house bills next Tuesday which, was finally defeated.

House bill providing for an industrial school for girls was finally passed by the senate.
